JOHN BURCHET,

Dancing and Musick Master,

From LONDON & PARIS,

TAKES this method to inform the public in general, and his friends in particular, that he has removed from his late shop in King-street, to White Hall in Broad-street, next the State house, where he makes all sorts of fiddle bows, both backs-hand and others, as cheap as imported, and hopes for the continuance of those ladies & gentlemen who have already employed him, which will be gratefully acknowledged.

By their humble Servant,
JOHN BURCHET.

RUN away about the 20th of October last, from my plantation in St. Thomas's parish, a negro fellow named ABRAHAM, lately belonging to Cholmondely Dering. He is well known in Stono parish, had a wife at the late William Elliott's plantation in said parish, and has been seen near Ashley river, on his way to Stono. Any person that will apprehend the said fellow, and deliver him to the subscriber, in Charles-Town, shall have ten pounds reward.

BEN. SIMONS.

Twenty five POUNDS reward.

RAN away on the 28th of last month, from the schooner Georgia Packet, James Fitzsimons master, a negro fellow named ABRAHAM; formerly the property of William Sanders, of this town, but now of Josiah Tetnell, Esq; of Georgia. He is about 34 years of age, five feet seven inches high, speaks very good English, has very white teeth, a beard remarkably thick, and for some misdemeanor has been branded on the right cheek with the letter S—He had on when he went away, a good blue cloth coat, with double metal buttons, and other cloaths suitable. He is very artful and plausible, and has in some former elopement pretended to be free; for proof whereof he has produced a false certificate, drawn up by some evil disposed person, by which he has imposed on several people, who have employed him in the way of his trade, which is that of a bricklayer and plasterer, particularly one Capt. Ladson, of Ashley river, with whom he lived a considerable time, and is well known thereabouts. As he has several relations in town, they, as well as others, are hereby cautioned from harbouring him, and the above reward will be paid to whoever shall deliver him to the master of the work-house; or any person giving information where he may be concealed, so that the offender can be convicted, shall be amply satisfied, by

Whereas various reports have been ſpread in newspapers and otherwiſe, that a court of exchequer was to be eſtabliſhed in America:—The act of parliament reſpecting the ſame is now come over, and contains nothing more than confirming an act of this province paſſed in the 11th year of king William the 3d, which may be ſeen in the province law book, page 97, without the leaſt addition of any new power whatſoever.

Laſt Thurſday his excellency governor Bernard, of the Maſſachuſets Bay, communicated to the council of ſaid province a letter from the right hon. the Earl of Shelburne, one of his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate, inſiſting an order of his majeſty that he has been pleaſed to diſallow and reject an act paſſed by the great and general court or aſſembly of this province, in December 1766, intitled, "An act for granting compenſation to the ſufferers, and of free and general pardon, indemnity and oblivion to the offenders in the late times."

Extract of a letter from London, dated Auguſt 7, 1767.

"A long attempt to conſolide the different parties in a new miniſtry, has proved ineffectual—and it ſeems probable that the preſent ſet will continue ſome time longer.—This ſeems not unfortunate for America, as ſome of them who were propoſed to comein, were profeſſed adverſaries of America.—The prevailing diſtinction of parties here, is, thoſe who in the two laſt ſeſſions of parliament have been diſpoſed to favour America, are called by their oppoſers (by way of reproach) AMERICANS! while the adherents to G——e and B——d, boaſt of their being true to the intereſt of Britain, and zealous for maintaining his ſoveraignty over the colonies—This declaration ſeems every day to be more and more ſtrict; and it is much to be feared will be carried higher, in the next ſeſſion of parliament, for the political purpoſes of influencing the enſuing election.—It is already ſaid, that the act for quartering the ſoldiers at New-York, without taking notice of its being done in obedience to the act of parliament, is evaſive and unſatisfactory; that it is high time to put the right of taxing America out of diſpute, by an act of taxation, effectually carried into execution, &c. &c."

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) NOVEMBER 4.

A MESSAGE from his Excellency the Governor to the Upper houſe of Aſſembly.

Honourable Gentlemen,

THE earl of Shelburne, his majeſty's principal ſecretaries of ſtate for the ſouthern department, having notified to me, that his majeſty expects and requires that the commons houſe of aſſembly of this province will render an exact and complete obedience in all reſpects whatever to the terms of the mutiny act, and being commanded, without delay, in his majeſty's name, to require, that they will make thoſe proviſions for the ſupply of the king's troops which by that act they are directed to do,

I have this day laid his majeſty's commands before them, of which I think it neceſſary to inform you, and have not the leaſt doubt but that, ſo far as lies with you, you will cheerfully concur in rendering obedience to his majeſty's commands, and the authority of the Britiſh legiſlature.

JAMES WRIGHT.

Council chamber, Savannah in Georgia, the 27th of October, 1767.

To his Excellency JAMES WRIGHT, Eſq; Captain-General, Governor in chief of his Majeſty's province of Georgia, Chancellor and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

The humble ADDRESS of the Upper Houſe of Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THIS houſe having taken into conſideration your Excellency's meſſage of this day to them, intimating to them, that you had received a moſt gracious letter from the earl of Shelburne, his majeſty's principal ſecretary of ſtate for the ſouthern department, that his majeſty expected and required, that the commons houſe of aſſembly of this province will render an exact and complete obedience in all reſpects whatever to the terms of the mutiny act.

[illegible] doth aſſure your Excellency, that they will pay a due regard to his majeſty's [illegible] and exact and [illegible] diſpoſe in all reſpects whatever to the authority of the Britiſh legiſlature, as they are convinced it is their indiſpenſable duty ſo to do, and that they will moſt chearfully concur with the commons houſe of aſſembly in making thoſe proviſions for his majeſty's troops which are required by the ſaid act.

By order of the upper houſe,

JAMES HABERSHAM, Preſident.

Upper houſe of aſſembly,
October the 27th, 1767.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Honourable Gentlemen,

I AM extremely obliged to you for this addreſs; the dutiful regard you ſo warmly expreſs for his majeſty, and the authority of the Britiſh legiſlature, gives me great ſatisfaction, and I think muſt do you honour.

JAMES WRIGHT.

His excellency's MESSAGE to the commons houſe of aſſembly.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

HAVING lately received letters from the earl of Shelburne, his majeſty's principal ſecretary of ſtate for the ſouthern department, has obliged me to call you together a little earlier than I ſhould otherwiſe have done: But, gentlemen, I am to acquaint you, that his majeſty expects and requires that you will render an exact and complete obedience in all reſpects whatever to the terms of the mutiny act; and I am commanded without delay, in his majeſty's name, to require, that you will make thoſe proviſions for the ſupply of the king's troops which by that act you are directed to do.

Give me leave, gentlemen (not merely as governor, but from a ſincere and zealous wiſh for the happineſs and proſperity of the people and province) to exhort you in the warmeſt and ſtrongeſt manner to a chearful and ſpeedy compliance with this requiſition; let me intreat you coolly and ſeriouſly to conſider the duty we owe to the beſt of kings, the gratitude due to the Britiſh legiſlature for the peculiar favours and benifits beſtowed on us, and the protection we receive from the mother country, and which alone it is that muſt or can preſerve and ſecure to us our true liberty, our property, and every thing that is or ought to be dear and valuable to us. Theſe, and other conſiderations that muſt occur, I hope will prove powerful incentives, and that the prudent conduct of this ſeſſion will ſet us in that light with our moſt gracious ſovereign which I am perſuaded you as well as myſelf wiſh to appear in.

JAMES WRIGHT.

Council Chamber, Savannah in Georgia, the 27th of October, 1767.

To his Excellency JAMES WRIGHT, Eſquire, Captain-General, Governor, and commander in chief of his Majeſty's province of Georgia, and Vice Admiral of the ſame,

The humble ADDRESS of the commons houſe of aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE houſe having taken into conſideration your excellency's meſſage of Tueſday the 27th inſtant, beg leave to return, in anſwer thereto, that they have come to a reſolution to provide a ſum not exceeding 1001. ſterling for ſupplying his majeſty's troops doing duty in this province with the following articles, viz. firewood, candles, vinegar, and ſalt, bedding, utenſils for dreſſing their victuals, ſmall beer or cyder not exceeding five pints, or half a pint of rum, or in lieu thereof 3d. ſterling per diem, to each man reſpectively; and alſo to defray the expence of providing neceſſary carriages for the ſaid troops on their march through any part of this province, and for the hire of barns and outhouſes for their lodgement in ſuch places where no barracks are; to continue for one year, to commence the firſt day of November next, and to be raiſed and granted in the next general tax bill.

By order of the houſe,

ALEXANDER WYLLY, Speaker.

Commons houſe of aſſembly,
28th of October, 1767.

His Excellency's ANSWER,

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen,

I THANK you for this addreſs, in which you declare your intention and reſolution to provide a ſum of money for furniſhing the ſeveral articles therein ſpecified, and which are directed by the mutiny act, and I ſhall not entertain a doubt but that this intention will be carried into execution in ſuch a manner as will clearly ſhew a full compliance with his majeſty's requiſition, and obedience to the ſaid act.

J. WRIGHT.

The general aſſembly is adjourned till Monday the 11th of January next.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 16.

The following address would have been inserted in our last Gazette, could we have procured it.

To his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord CHARLES GREVILLE MONTAGU, Captain General, Governour, and Commander in chief, in and over his Majesty's province of SOUTH CAROLINA.

The humble ADDRESS of the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY of the said province.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons House of Assembly of this province, return your Excellency our sincere thanks, for your speech delivered to us on Thursday last.

The many instances of your Excellency's attention and regard to the welfare and interest of this province, justly claim our grateful acknowledgments.

The grievances complained of, in your Excellency's speech, relative to the back settlers, require our serious and immediate attention, and your Excellency may be assured, that we shall take the same into consideration, as soon as possible; and for that purpose, we humbly desire, that you will be pleased to communicate to this house, such papers and informations concerning those transactions, as have come to your Excellency's hands.

When the public accompts are laid before this house, you Excellency may depend on our making due provision for their discharge.

Your Excellency's recommendation, regarding the laws which are already expired, or nearly expiring, and the revival or continuance of such as may appear necessary and advantageous to the public, shall meet with that consideration from the house, a matter of such consequence merits.

By order of the House,
PETER MANIGAULT, Speaker.

In the Commons House of Assembly, the 6th day of Nov. 1767.

A number of Cherokee Indians came to town last Wednesday, conducted by Alexander Cameron, Esq; the superintendent's commissary or deputy in that nation, to congratulate his Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Charles Greville Montagu, our governor, upon his arrival; and to embark for New-York, for the purpose of concluding a peace with the Northern tribes, who have been very troublesome to them for some years past. Amongst them are, Occunnahnab or the Great-Warrior, the Prince of Chota, Attakullakulla, or the Little Carpenter, Tuffeyunnee of Keowhee, and the Raven of Muccasshi, all principal headmen. They had an audience of his Excellency the Governor on Friday; appear extremely well pleased with their reception and treatment; and seem to remain here till his Majesty's Superintendent returns from the Southward, whom he is daily expected.

Late letters from the West Indies advise, that the French King has prohibited all trade and correspondence between his subjects, and those of the crown of Great-Britain, in those parts, after the 30th of December next, and that all British subjects do depart his American dominions by that time.

The Anna Theresa packet-boat, commanded by Capt. Valentine Dyer, not having been heard of since she sailed from Pensacola, now near seven weeks, there is great reason to fear she was lost in the storm of the 16th and 17th past.

Last Monday Mr. John M'Call, jun. was married to Miss Charlotte Glen, daughter of Mr. William Glen, merchant.

Wednesday last arrived here from London, in the ship Planters Adventure, Capt. Lowley, Mrs. Susannah Punfold, formerly Mrs. Bosomworth, of this place.

The same day died that truly pious and good man, the Rev. Mr. Daniel Wheeler, minister of the society or congregation distinguished by the name of General Baptists.

Last Saturday arrived here in the ship Jenny, Capt. Harrison, from New-York, Ralph Izard, Esq; with his new-married lady, and her sister Miss De Lancey.

Last Monday morning died Mrs. Susannah Scott, aged 75 years. She was brought to this province from New-England, at about 5 years of age.

The ship Mary, Thomas Doubleday, master, berthen about 1400 barrels of rice, from London, bound for this port, mistaking South-Edisto harbour for this, and standing in for a pilot, ran ashore upon a sand bank, near Tucker's island, on Tuesday last, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon: Some schooners are sent to her assistance, but it is still doubtful whether she can be got off.

The sloop Mary, Benjamin Tatem master, from this port, bound for St. Kitts, with 50 horses on board, lost all her horses in the gale of the 16th and 17th past, and put into Bermuda the 23d.

By the northern papers we find, that many vessels arrived there, and others spoke with, had suffered much in the same gale.

Friday last Sylvester and James Stokes, were executed pursuant to their sentence. Mark Nettles, and Thomas Floyd, were reprieved till his Majesty's pleasure should be known; and Jonathan Clark, alias M'Connell, for three months.

RICE sells current at £.3 per Hundred.

JOHN WITHERS, Administrator.

The COPARTNERSHIP of VILLEPONTOUX & WARING,

being expired, and the former having declined the mercantile business,

THEY return thanks to all who have favoured them with their customs: And as there is a necessity for speedily closing the affairs of the said co-partnership, they hope, all those who have been kind enough to deal with them, and whose accompts will become due the end of the year, will also be so kind then to come and settle, which will much oblige

Their humble servants,
VILLEPONTOUX & WARING.

RUN away from the subscriber, the beginning of last February, a very likely negro fellow, of the Mandingo country, called CAESAR. He is a black well set fellow, about five feet six inches high, and about twenty years of age; had on when he went away a white negro cloth jacket and breeches, with a little under jacket to lace; he has a very remarkable mark on one side of his face, as if it were stampt with a thimble. Whoever apprehends the said negro fellow, and delivers him to me on my plantation, on the north east branch of Cooper river, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency, besides all other reasonable charges.
ROBERT DEARINGTON.

And the subscriber thinks the said negro fellow is taken up by some of the back inhabitants of this province, and kept privately at work, or carried into North-Carolina or Virginia and sold, he will give a reward of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any person that will deliver him the said negro fellow, or give information of his being harboured by a white person, so that the offender may be prosecuted.

JAMES M'CALL,

Having purchased Messrs. LLOYD & NEYLE's STOCK of GOODS, and imported a LARGE SUPPLY since, in the last two ships from LONDON and BRISTOL,

NOW has a very COMPLEAT ASSORTMENT proper for the place and season: Likewise water, milk, butter and ship biscuit, flour, &c. just imported in capt. Mason, from Philadelphia: All which he will sell at the most reasonable rates they can be afforded, at his store in Tradd street, lately occupied by Mr. John M'Call junior; and will be very much obliged to all who were customers to Lloyd & Neyle, for a continuance of their favours to him.

He has also to dispose of, for cash, at prime cost and charges, a variety of handsome brocades, ducapes, mantuas, lutestrings and other silks, silk cardinals, capuchins, womens hatts and bonnets, gold and silver lace, &c. Any person inclinable to purchase the whole (about £. 2000 sterling value) may have them at seven for one, and four months credit, or they will be bartered for other goods that may suit, at their first cost.

SHEED and WHITE,

HAVING for some time declin'd the dry goods business, and being determin'd to close their affairs the ensuing winter, give this last and final notice, to all whom it may concern, that such bonds, notes or accompts as are not discharged by the first of February next, will, without distinction be sued for.
Oct. 21, 1767.

TO BE SOLD, at public auction,
At the usual place in Charles-Town, to the highest bidder, on THURSDAY the 26th of November,

THE Plantation whereon the subscriber now lives, containing five hundred and six acres of as good land as any in the province, with a good dwelling house, barn, rice machine, and all other necessary out houses; about sixty acres of the swamps are under good fence and proper dams.—The above tract is so well known, that it needs no further recommendation. Credit will be given to the first of March 1768, giving approved security to
WILLIAM MILES.

STRAYED or stolen, from Charles Town green, two geldings, one of which is a forrel, had a bob mane, about fifteen hands high, has a bump on his off rib, and is branded with the mark of a gun thus [illegible] and has another brand but is forgot.—

The other is a bright bay with a black mane and tail, about fourteen hands high, has one wall eye, and is branded HC on the buttock. He was formerly well known about Port-Royal by the name of Bird. Whoever will bring said horses to the subscriber in Charles-Town, shall receive two dollars reward for each, from
EDWARD DAVIES.

RICHARD WALTER, & Co.

At DORCHESTER,

Have just imported, in the Portland, Capt. Biggins, from LONDON,

A Fresh and neat assortment of goods for the season, and will there be sold as cheap, as at any store in the province.

JOHN DAWSON, & Co.

Have just imported in the Portland, Capt. Biggins, from LONDON,

A NEAT cargo of goods for the season, the choice of which has been carefully attended to, and which (added to their other stock) renders a very compleat assortment, and will be sold at their stores in Charles-Town, and at Monk's Corner, remarkable cheap. 6

A LARGE QUANTITY OF NEGRO SHOES,

MADE by one of the best hands in the province, all fresh and mostly large sizes, to be sold at Seventeen Shillings and Six Pence the pair, by WARD & LEGER.

THE CO-PARTNERSHIP of the subscribers being for some time dissolved; the necessity they are under for a speedy close of their concerns, obliges them thus PUBLICKLY to inform all those, whose bonds, notes, or open accompts may remain unpaid, by the first day of February next, that on that day they are determined to place the same into the hands of an attorney to be sued for without distinction. JOHN STEWART, & Co.

FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS

Currency reward.

WHEREAS a leaf containing pages 128 and 129 in a book marked G. kept for recording grants in the secretary's office of this province, hath been cut out and taken away, as it is supposed, by some evil-disposed person or persons: In order, therefore, to discover and bring to justice the perpetrators of an offence of so dangerous a tendency, the subscriber will pay on their conviction, the above reward to any person who shall discover them, and give evidence whereupon such conviction shall be had. THOMAS SMOTTOWE.

October 29, 1767.

Guerin & Williamson,

FINDING no regard paid to their repeated solicitations for those indebted to them, to call and settle their respective accounts, do FOR THE LAST TIME give notice, that all bonds, notes, and book debts due to them, and unpaid on the 15th of December next, will be put into the hands of John Colcock, attorney at law, to be sued for without distinction. 6
